

SAVE THE DATE

PAOLI HOSPITAL REGIONAL TRAUMA CENTER 9th ANNUAL TRAUMA SYMPOSIUM

Featured Speaker and Presentation

The Orlando Shooting: Lessons Learned
Dr. Michael L. Cheatham, MD, FACS, FCCM

Dr. Michael L. Cheatham is the Chief Surgical Quality Officer for Orlando Regional Medical Center and the Academic Chair of the Department of Surgical Education. He is also a practicing acute care/ trauma and burn surgeon at the Level I Trauma Center at Orlando Regional Medical Center, the primary hospital that received multiple victims from the Pulse Nightclub shooting.

Thursday, November 2, 2017
5:30 – 9:15 PM

Penn State Great Valley Conference Center
Malvern, PA

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

This program is designed to enhance the care of patients with acute trauma related diagnoses by improving the knowledge of healthcare providers on the front line of these emergencies.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND

The program is designed for nurses, physicians, physician assistants, pre-hospital emergency medical service personnel, and other interested allied health care professionals.

REGISTRATION

Brochure and registration information will be available September 22, 2017 at mainlinehealth.org/trauma

CE Applications pending for nurses, physicians, and pre-hospital EMS personnel continuing education credit.

Paoli Hospital
Main Line Health®

Well ahead.®