Chief Chittenden administered the Oath of Office to Richard Roe, Patrolman for the Wauseon Police Department.

CONDOLENCES

Mayor Huner said she would like to take a moment for Officer Dia who was shot and killed in Toledo this past weekend. She thanked all of our police officers for their service to our city.

DEPARTMENT HEAD REPORTS

Chief Sluder: Call activity has increased. They are working on the EMS contracts. Training facilities are shut down around the state so they have been doing a lot of in house training.

Councilor Jeff Stiriz said he had asked President Chamberlin about the city paying for someone to get a nursing license but didn't get an answer. Chief Sluder said no the city is not paying for someone to get a nursing license.

Chief Chittenden: He welcomed Ric Roe as the new full time officer. Safety City started today in a Reighard Park shelter house and the budget for Safety City is in need of funds. On July 11, 2020 from 11-3 at Star Bright laundry, Divine Interventions will pay customer's laundry fees as way to give back. The PD is sending a car for Officer Dia's services.

Councilor Stickley asked if they are still taking donations for Safety City and was told yes.

Keith Torbet: On July 14, 2020 he is scheduled to give a presentation to DGL Consulting for the Small City's Grant for Oak Street. The city's fuel pumps will be down as of noon tomorrow to switch over to the new fuel monitoring system. Ridgeville Telephone Company is laying fiber optic cable on Shoop which may cause delays. Fulton County All Hazards Mitigation Plan will likely be on the agenda for the next meeting.

President Chamberlin asked about the obstructed stop sign on Arrowhead and County Road 13 from a tree that is grown over. Mr. Torbet said he would take care of it.

Jamie Giguere: Absent

Tom McWatters: He is working with a Columbus lawyer to update the pool levy legislation. He said he will be drafting legislation for restrictions on fishing at Rotary Pond.
