

HOT Training

By FDNY Lt. Tim Klett

Friday and Saturday, September 18-19, 2020

9:00 am – 4:00 pm

Tim Klett is a 30 year fire service veteran and currently serves on FDNY's 88 Engine in the Bronx. Tim spent 12 years on 69 Engine in Harlem, one of the FDNY's busiest engines. He started his career as a volunteer firefighter with the Newington, CT, Fire Department. He was the lead HOT Instructor at both FDIC and FDIC West and has lectured at many national conferences and symposiums. He developed the Engine Company Operations Course for the Fire Department Training Network and serves as the lead instructor at the FDTN Academy. He has written many articles for major fire service publications. He is a New York State fire instructor and an Adjunct Instructor with the Connecticut State Fire School.

Cost of this seminar: FREE

Go to the Delaware State Fire School Website to register for this class.